School Districts Who Received ARP – Homeless Education Funding

The American Rescue Plan directed a one-time $32 million infusion of support to the Fiscal Year 2023-24 Pennsylvania budget for the Education for Children and Youth Experiencing Homelessness (ECYEH) program. ECYEH expanded its capacity, as did many school districts and charter schools, to provide staffing, train school personnel, and provide direct services like uniforms, transportation, motel stays, mentoring, summer programming, school supplies, and more.

More than 400 school districts and charters in Pennsylvania received this emergency funding. In 2022, schools identified more than 40,000 children and youth who were homeless. No one is predicting that the problem of homelessness in the schools is going away.

Unspent funds revert to the federal government by January 31, 2025. The state budget will revert to its $5 million federal allotment, viewed historically by advocates as inadequate.

There are no new funds expected, unless the General Assembly does not supplement the federal fund with its 'General Funds.'

Advocates are asking the General Assembly for $32 million in General Funds for the ECYEH program for the FY 2024-25 budget.

Here are the schools in your region who received ARP funds. Without General Funds, most schools will lose support for homeless students.
