

Leslie Haddock MSW, MBA, Managing Director of Transitional Housing

Leslie Haddock, Managing Director of Transitional Housing, joined HopePHL™ in April 2020. Leslie is responsible for the oversight of residents' in-take process, housing placement, and case management. She has over seventeen years of supervisory and case management experience in providing social services for families in crisis. She holds an MSW from Norfolk State University and an MBA in Public Administration from Strayer University.